On the Home page you'll have your daily reminders of your personal obligations set upon by yourself as well as the upcoming events near you aswell

On the shown events, youll see the name. time, location and if you have space on your calendar to go.

On the school page youll see events exclusive to your school, and the bar on the right side is to show you that will be be able to scroll to see more events not just two.

The icon in the middle is the personal calendar, you'll be able to set personal events you have going on, like "study time" or "hanging out with friends" to help you better navigate through events you have available to you.
